ANNOUNCEMENTS

JULIE OLSON SERVING AS INTERIM DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS

With the retirement of Corinne Hansen, I have asked BHSU alumna Julie Olson to serve as interim Director of Marketing and Communications for the next few months. Julie begins her position today, June 22. Julie has extensive professional experience in the marketing/advertising world as owner of Turner Lee Consulting and Design, a firm that specializes in brand development for packaging, print and web. Julie has also served as an adjunct faculty at BHSU in the School of Business where she has taught marketing classes. Over the next months, Julie will be reaching out to offices and units across campus for individual meetings to learn more about BHSU and marketing needs. I appreciate Julie stepping up to help us during this transitional time and until we can identify a permanent leader for the Office of Marketing and Communications.

The search for the next Director is on-going. The original search was extended and a search firm as been retained to assist us in this recruitment process. We hope to have finalists for campus interviews in early fall. I thank the search committee for their work over the summer months to bring this search to a successful conclusion.
