MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

Hello,

Mental Health continues to be on the rise... I am hoping to take a more pro-active approach in meeting the Mental Health needs of students here on campus. I want to provide education, trainings, presentations, etc. to the campus as a whole, not just students who utilize the counseling services on campus; All in an effort to better identify students at risk, promote social connectedness, and increase help-seeking behaviors. If you are interested in classroom presentations, picking my brain about mental health questions.... I just want you to know that I am here and happy to help in any way that I can.

I look forward to a new year and working with/getting to know you all!

Please don't hesitate to reach out 642-1255 or 642-6520

There is no instructor, but you are welcome to

- interact with it,
- observe how certain D2L features could be used to make your course more engaging &
- know how students experience a course in D2L.

If you are interested to be added as a student, please send an email to Prasanthi.Pallapu@BHSU.edu.

SUSTAINABILITY PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT: HILLS ARE HOME!

There is no better way to celebrate #NationalForestWeek than to spend time in the beautiful Black Hills. From early Native American tribes 10,000 years ago to locals to visitors, the Black Hills have been a place for peace, tranquility, physical, and spiritual renewal. The Black Hills gets its name from the Lakota words, "Paha Sapa" meaning "the hills that are black." Earning its name comes from the Ponderosa Pine tree, the primary tree in the Black Hills.

We all play a vital role in protecting our parks and forests. As we enjoy the beauties and adventures that the Black Hills gives us, it is important that we are conscious of our actions and how they affect the plants, animals, and even whole ecosystems!

#RecreateResponsibility to protect yourself, others, and the outdoors this week and Leave No Trace. Stay on designated paths and dispose of waste properly; pack it in, pack it out! Leave the trails as you find them for future visitors to enjoy.
